

WOODY WEEKEND AWAY 2010

26th - 28th February

The 2010 Woody Weekend Away is nearly upon us. This year we will again be heading into mid-Wales to stay at Cefn Lea Park, near Newtown in Powys. For those of you who have not been on a Woody Weekend in the past, it is a relaxed and informal opportunity to get to know others in the fellowship better, and to hear from God.

This year we have Julian Richards coming to lead the teaching. Julian is the senior leader of Cornerstone Church, Swansea and part of New Wine Wales. We will also have children's work leaders from outside the fellowship to give our regular children's teams a break. However, although we have leaders coordinating the work for children and young people, we will need a number of volunteers to help them. If you would like to volunteer for one session of the weekend (no more than an hour or two) you are entitled to a discount of £5.00. Please tick the box on the booking form if you would like to help.

As with previous years we have booked half board accommodation. This means Saturday breakfast and evening meal; and Sunday breakfast and lunch are provided. Transport will be in cars, and we will try and match people who need lifts with people who have space in their cars. Further details on arrangements will be made available nearer the time but it will be really helpful if you can complete the travel details on the booking form to allow us to make plans.

The costs for the weekend are set out in the table below. We would also ask that if you are provided with a lift, you come to an arrangement regarding fuel costs with your driver at the time. We have endeavoured to keep costs as low as we possibly can. However, we realise that in the current climate the costs may be a barrier for some. As a church leadership we don't want financial pressures to stop people from attending. We have therefore put in place a number of provisions to support you if this is the case, these include making staged payments over an extended period, and/or providing places at reduced costs. If you require support please complete the relevant section on the booking form or speak to David Morrell. We will treat all requests for support with discretion. To aid those who would like to pay in stages we have special standing order mandate forms available from Stuart Hardisty and Judy Davies.
